NORTHAMPTON TOWN WOMEN WIN IN FRONT OF RECORD ATTENDANCE AT SIXFIELDS

A report from Sunday's game at Sixfields

Northampton Town Women returned to Sixfields Stadium and secured a 3-2 win over Lincoln City in the FA Women's National League Plate first round last week.

Alex Dicks, Beth Artemiou and Favour Omenazu scored the Cobblers' goals in front of 1,011 supporters, an attendance that breaks the team's record set when they hosted Loughborough Students last season.

Northampton grew into the contest and began creating chances after the half-an-hour mark, Dicks coming inches away from scoring with a header from captain Zoe Boote's cross.

The forward made amends when she opened the scoring midway through the first period. Holly Mayfield was quick off her line to start a Cobblers break, and Abbie Reboul fed Dicks who kept her composure to finish.

Lincoln began controlling possession as the opening 45 minutes came to a close, but they failed to mount any serious threat to Mayfield's goal in this period.

The Northampton 'keeper had to be alert to prevent Jess Rousseau's deflected cross from beating her at the near post early in the second half.

Mayfield made another save from Leah Hardy's shot across goal on the hour, but there was nothing she could do to stop Abi Ringrose's long-range strike which brought the visitors level soon after.

Despite Lincoln's second half dominance, the Cobblers restored their lead a few minutes later when Artemiou finished from Noble's through ball to round-off a fine passing move.

But the visitors equalised again with less than a quarter-of-an-hour remaining, Lucy Farrow converting the rebound after substitute Amy Kay's long-range effort hit the post.

The drama continued as Northampton took the lead for a third time within a minute, Omenazu nodding in from a looped cross.

Lincoln pushed forward in search of yet another equaliser, but they failed in their pursuit and ended the game with 10 on the field after a player was sent-off for dissent in added time.

Cobblers: Mayfield, Boote, Wait, Luttman, Brewin (Williams 84), Mumford (Farrow 68), Noble, Artemiou (Bailey 74), Omenazu, Dicks (Richards 90+1), Reboul (Barrett 46)
