Club Information- Wolves Women

Wolverhampton Wanderers Women's Football Club, commonly known as Wolves Women, is an English women's football club that play in the FA Women's National League North.

At the end of the 2020-21 season, Wolves were promoted via 'upward movement' to the FA Women's National League North. In the subsequent season (2021-22), Wolves secured a place in the play-off with a chance for another promotion, this time to the FA Women's Championship, beating Sheffield F.C.

Ladies 2-0 with 3 games left until the end of the season. They would go on to lose the play-off 1-0 to Southern Division winners Southampton F.C.

Wolves Women play their home games at the New Bucks Head in Telford, the home of A.F.C. Telford United. Good luck today!

Thank you dbfb for your support!

The 2021/22 season was a record-breaking year for our women's and girls programme, highlighted by two record stadium attendances, the best FA Cup run in the club's history (3rd Round), the Northants FA County Cup success and a well-deserved promotion as champions of the East Midlands Women's Regional Football League. While the progress and strength of the first team is evident through the results and their promotion to the Women's National League, credit must be given to the overall programme which allows girls to filter through the ranks, striving for first team action.

None of the hard work and accomplishments this season would have been possible without the funding and support from our sponsors, one of which have been involved with the club for over 10 years, namely dbfb.

dbfb, a communications provider specialising in flexible connectivity, IT & telephone solutions for businesses are the main front of shirt sponsor for both the Women's and now Academy sides. They are passionate about investing in the development of female players with the drive to see women's football continue to grow. By seeing the progress of local players, not just on the pitch, but their confidence in general is what has encouraged their continued investment over the last 2 years.

Simon Pickering, Managing Director of dbfb has said:

"Women's football is fast becoming part of the mainstream football fixtures with its popularity growing exponentially - this was shown by the recent record sales of tickets for a women's game. We hope that by supporting with the club with funding, the club's profile will continue to be raised, and as a sponsor that means our profile will too"

Due to the growth and the success of the programme in recent years we are looking for additional funding partners across our programme who share dbfb's passion for local women's football.
